

Ramex's policy is to provide high quality products, in order to meet the needs of customers, as well as their employees and financial partners.

The Company operates in compliance with the laws in force and in no case may the pursuit of the Company's interest justify a conduct contrary to the principles of correctness and legality. In order to ensure that the performance of all the activities complies with the defined quality policy and meets the objectives set, the General Management has appointed the RSGQ with the task of formalizing the company Quality System and monitoring the application of what has been established, in terms of effectiveness and efficiency.

However, the Management makes it clear that the achievement of the objectives defined above is a responsibility of its own and of all Personnel and it is the prerogative of everyone that the Quality System is actively managed and continuously improved by motivated, responsible and professionally trained people.

The General Management undertakes to take an active role in promoting and guiding all activities that influence Quality, through the dissemination, at all levels, of the Policy set forth here and periodically verifying its degree of suitability.
